SUGAR CASE IS NOT DROPPED

PLEA OF IMMUNITY OF INDI-VIDUALS IS THE HITCH.

Proposition of the Defence That Parsons. Thomas and Kissel Are Immune Because of Testimony They Gave in Civil Suit Put Up to Attorney-General.

The case against the American Sugar denial was made yesterday at the Federal building of the truth of publications to last night, we folks of advanced years ought to render thanks that we shan't be around. denial was made yesterday at the Federal in indictments in the case was due, it immunity as a result of testimony in the civil case in the Federal courts and the controlling effect of the decision in the Knight case, one of the earlier cases involving the Sherman law passed upon by the Supreme Court.

Only one of these points was deemed novel, that being the contention that through their testimony in the civil cases certain of the individuals involved-individuals and the company are both involved-had earned immunity from prosecution in a criminal case. It is this point which Attorney-General Wicker-

Mr. Guthrie pointed out that John E. Parsons, President W. B. Thomas of the sugar trust and Gustave E. Kissel, who as agent of the trust made the $1,250,000 loan to Adolph Segal, had been subpomaed as witnesses in the civil suit against the sugar company brought in the Circuit Court and that under such subposnas had been called upon to produce important documents. Mr. Thomas produced the minutes of the stockholders' and directors' meeting by which full authority was given to Mr. Parsons and the late H. O. Havemeyer to arrange the loan through Kissel. Mr. Parsons was called upon to produce the correspondence that passed between himself and Samuel Untermyer, then counsel for Segal, at a time when Mr. Untermyer was seeking to pay off part of the loan and by so doing secure the release of the stock of the Pennsylvania Sugar Refining Company. Kissel produced the original contract of December 30, 1903, providing for the loan of $1,250,000, and he also produced the original proxies in respect to the 26,000 shares of the Pennylvania stock turned. sylvania stock turned over to him as part

"Under these circumstances," says the Guthrie brief, "none of the documents so produced in the said judicial proceed ing can be used against these several

it was said yesterday that the question whether or not testimony in a civil suit between private parties in the Federal courts se ured immunity for the witness as not controlling the Government's action. The decision in the Knight case was made a good many years ago in a suit brought to test the right of the American Sugar Refining Company to buy up the sugar Remning Company to buy at the stock of four competing companies, the allegation being that this was in restraint of trade. The decision was in favor of the sugar company and has been referred to the sugar company and has been referred to the sugar company and has been referred to the sugar company and has been referred. the sugar company and has been referred to oftentimes since. It is contended that the Northern Securities case and other subsequent decisions have practically nullified the effect of this decision. One of the reasons given by Attorney-General naparte to Receiver Earle for the Bonaparte to Receiver Larie for the Government's refusal to prosecute the sugar company was that the Knight decision stood in the way, but from the fact that Mr. Wickersham, his successor, ordered the present investigation, it has been assumed that he has differed with Mr. Respected on this point.

Bonaparte on this point.
Assistant District Attorney John W. Assistant District Attorney John W. Crim, in charge of the case in the absence of Mr. Wise, who sailed for Paris yesterday, said yesterday that he was still going ahead with the case and that witnesses would be called before the Grand Jury in a day or two to fill in the testi-

"We are assuming that the law is all right." said Mr. Crim, "and are simply going ahead to bring out the facts."

Mr. Crim thought it was likely that the Mr. Crim thought it was likely that the Grand Jury would resume the sugar case to-morrow. It is understood that Mr. Wise tried to postpone his departure until Saturday, pending the decision of the Washington authorities, but found that it would be impossible, the date for the examination of witnesses in Paris in the Panama libel case having already been set. John G. Milburn, who appeared as coup-

John G. Milburn, who appeared as counsel for the sugar company, is to sail this morning also. Gustav E. Kissel was down morning also. Gustav E. Kissel was down to sail with Mr. Milburn on the Lusitania, but has changed his plans.

WASHINGTON, June 29.—Officials of the Department of Justice absolutely decline discuss inquiries now in progress to discuss inquiries now in progress bearing upon a proposed prosecution of the American Sugar Refining Company, more popularly known as the sugar trust. Attorney-General Wickersham has this case in his own hands and he has causassian to be sugar trust. ioned his subordinates to refrain from making any comment on information relative to the matter that may come into their possession in the course of the routine business of the Department.

It is known, however, that the Government has not abandoned hope of securing ment has not abandoned help of securing evidence that will justify prosecution and that officials of the Department of Justice are busy collecting information which is placed in the hands of Attorney-General Wickersham in the form of official reports

There is a good deal of mystery about this particular case and authentic information upon any phase of it is difficult to

TWO NEW HABITAT GROUPS.

Specimens From Maine and the Potomae for American Museum Collection.

Frank M. Chapman, curator of ornithlogy at the American Museum of Natural History, has just returned from a week's jount through Maine, where he obtained a ectting for a loon group to form a part of the series of bird habitat groups now installed at the museum. Mr. Chapman pent a week at Lake Umbagog, Maine. He was accompanied on his trip by Ho lart Nichols, an artist.

Mr. Chapman has also secured material

PAIN'S LATEST SPECTACLE. The Battle in the Clouds With a Foc

From Far Beyond Them. To a chorus of "A-a-ahs" and "O-o-ohs" from the big crowd that filled the grand stands at Brighton Beach the Pain's Fireworks show for this season opened last night. Mr. Pain has gone in for aerial navigation in his new production. He calls it the "Battle in the Clouds."

The spectacle happens in and abovemostly above-a city such as Mr. Nash, Refining Company involving its dealings Mr. Pain's scene painter, imagines an up with the Pennsylvania Sugar Refining to date city ought to look fifty years Company has not been dropped by the hence. If they're going to shoot up (or Government's attorneys. Authoritative down) cities a half century from now as in indictments in the case was due, it was said, to the desire of the Government's representatives here to have Attorney-General Wickersham pass upon one of the points raised by the lawyers representing the defendants which had nothing to do with the statute of limitations.

In addition to the arguments made by John M. Bowers, John G. Milburn and William D. Guthrie before District Attorney Wise on Monday, a brief by Mr. Guthrie was submitted in which three points were raised as to why no prosecution would lie. These three, as enumerated, were the statute of limitations, immunity as a result of testimony in the limitations are chased off Earth, but the imaginary city is in ruins before it all is the case of the more o the imaginary city is in ruins before it all is over. The pyrotechnic display that concludes the performance is even more awe inspiring than the former efforts of Mr. Pain and won merited applause that added to the racket as the bombs burst.

NO EDUCATIONAL THEATRE? Mark Twain and Other Directors Ask to Have Corporation Dissolved.

The Educational Theatre, which was organized by Mark Twain and others to train the East Side children in the dramatic arts and has been run in connection with the Educational Alliance. got an order from Supreme Court Justice Giegerich yesterday to show cause why the corporation should not be dissolved. The order is returnable on August 9. It follows a number of troubles of the theatre since it was incorporated last October, among which were efforts of the police to stop the Sunday night performances as violations of the Sunday law and the resignation in February of Mrs. Emma Sheridan Fry, who had been head director for five years.

The application for the order to show cause is directed to Attorney-General O'Malley and Miss Alice Minnie Herts, who has been the real head of the theatre since it was organized. She is the only director who didn't sign the application for the order, the other four being Samuel L. Clemens, Robert J. Collier, Charles E.

Miner and Otto H. Kahn. Miner and Otto H. Kahn.

The application says that there are no creditors or unsatisfied judgments and that the directors deem it beneficial to dissolve because the theatre has been supported entirely by voluntary contributions and the burden of carrying on the work has fallen on the directors. They say they have found that in order to carry out the work properly it would be necessive. out the work properly it would be necessary to have an endowment fund to maintain theatre and school and that they have found it impossible to get that fund. The theatre hasn't been doing much since Mrs. Fry resigned. At that time the senior class at the theatre on whom the productions depended decided to support Mrs. Fry and thirty-five of them sent in their resignations to Miss Herts. This courts se ured immunity for the witness trom a criminal prosecution by the Government, based largely on such testimony, and never been passed upon by the higher courts, but that the Government's attorneys took the view that it should be threshed out on demurrer.

Oliver Pagan, the Government's expert at drawing indictments, went to Washington on Monday night, carrying with him the Guthrie brief and a résume of the matter before Mr. Wickersham.

So far as the other points in the brief are concerned, it is the understanding that they have already been passed upon the formulation of the matter before Mr. Wickersham.

The deletest of them sent in their resignations to Miss Herts. This sent to them sent in their resignations to Miss Herts. This beston. The children wrote a letter to Mark Twain at that time in which they asked him if he couldn't adjust the troubles at the theatre. They said that Mrs. Fry's resignation had been made necessary by Miss Herts' desire to further the interests of Jacob Heniger, the stage manager. They gave Miss Herts credit for putting the work of the theatre before the public, but said it was work done by Mrs. Fry that made the production of "The Prince and Pauper" and other presentations at the theatre notable.

A translation into Armenian is being Eichelberger's undertaking rooms at 934 Eighth avenue. Npbody spoke of Martin J. Keese—the conversation was of "Marty."

The funeral services were held at 2 o'clock. Mayor McClellan had been experiences were held at 2 o'clock. Mayor McClellan had been experiences of the were stated to the book by Miss Herts' desire to further the interpolation of the stage manager. They gave Miss Herts credit for putting in the understanding the Government's experiences of the was a that the interpolation in the wisc said that o'clock. Mayor McClellan had been experiences of the understanding the was a that the understanding the manager. They said that was work done by Mrs. Fry that made the production of "The Prince and Pauper" and other presentations at the

the theatre notable.

Miss Herts said at the time that the only difficulty was the failure of Mrs. Fry to be satisfied with the work mapped out for

It was stated yesterday that Miss Herts will have arguments to present on the hearing of the order to show cause, and that by August 9 she may advance a way ue the work of the theatre without the aid of the petitioning directors.

MRS. MACKAY HOME With Many New Things, but Not a Word

About the Ballot. Mrs. Clarence Mackay, who arrived yesterday afternoon on the Kronprinz Wilhelm. miled amiably when a group of reporters begged her to tell them what she thought of the progress of the woman suffrage cult in Europe and why, and referred them to her husband.

Mr. Mackay is a life member of the Equal Franchise Society, of which Mrs. Mackay is president, but he modestly insisted that he was not qualified to speak and referred all inquirers back to Mrs. Mackay, who again declared that she had nothing to say.

Mr. Mackay then added that neither of them had been bothering about anything except having a good time for about six weeks. They rambled about through he said, and hadn't kept track of what was happening. Mrs. Mackay wore a much buttoned frock of white linen built on ecclesiastical lines and a white picture hat, over which was draped a black veil.

She admitted indirectly to the customs officers that all her time abroad had not been appent in a nursely desurbed.

McClellan had ordered the City Hall flags at half mast for the occasion, and the plaza a contingent of patrolmen who were on guard both on the City Hall steps and in the plaza, and a detachment of the traffic squad, mounted, who gave added dignity to the occasion. A small France and Germany in their motor, omeers that air ner time abroad had not been spent in a purely desultory manner, for she made the largest declara-tion of dutiable purchases on record for

Mr. and Mrs. Mackay and their little daughter, who accompanied them on their trip, went immediately to Harbor View, their Roslyn place, where they will spend the rest of the summer. Mrs. Mackay has planned to open the headquarters of the Equal Franchise League in the Metro-politan Life Insurance Building the first of August and expects to come in town twice a week to direct the affairs of the

THE SEAGOERS.

Maude Adams and George F. Baer Among Those Salling To-day. Sailing to-day by the Cunarder Lusitania, for Queenstown and Liverpool: Reginald Auchincloss, Gordon Auchinloss, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Burden, Mrs. John H. Clews, Charles T. Crocker, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Emmet, C. Oliver Iselin, Mrs. Mrs. Robert Emmet, C. Oliver Iselin, Mrs. Nat C. Goodwin, Maude Adams, the Marquis of Linlithgew, Mrs. H. W. McVickar, Mr. and Mrs. John G. Milburn, Ralph Modjeska, Mme. Felice Modjeska, Sir E. P. Morris, Lady Morris, De Lancey Nicoll, George Peabody, Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Rea Peabody, Justice M. Warley Platzek, Dr. and Mrs. S. O. Vander Poel and Baron Oscar von Rothschild.

Passengers by the White Star liner Majestic, for Plymouth, Cherbourg and Southampton: Mr. and Mrs. George F. Baer, Prof. J. Laurence Laughlin, Judge and Mrs. David M. Simpson and Prof. Allan C. Thomas.

Arthur E. Bestwick Going to St. Louis Public Library.

OSCAR HAMMERSTEIN HOME

HE CAN'T TELL THEM ALL,

But He Knows How Hard It Is to Find New Artists-Also He Appears Without the Idealized Top Hat-Hopes Still to Invade Paris Next Spring.

sacred hat which is identified with the impresario's appearance. He wore a soft gray hat and explained that after his accident in a taxicab in Paris he had not been able to find a silk hat of suitable lines in Europe. He ordered one from his private block as soon as he got uptown.

"I have been eleven weeks in Europe," he told THE SUN reporter, "and my arrangements for the next season are of such magnitude that I will not be able until Wednesday. I travelled as far as had particular difficulty in getting the singers for my opéra comique season. The day before I left Paris Mr. Dippel asked me if I had any artists I did not need, as he had been scouring Europe and had not yet found a singer for Mme. Lange in 'La Fille de Madame Angot,' which is to be sung at the New Theatres I can opera comique branch of my company."

hattan begins on August 30 and the regular season on November 15. Mr. Hammerstein said he had selected the site for his Brooklyn opera house, but would not begin building at once, as his plan was not to open the theatre until next

"I have heard 'Electra' in Berlin, Dresden and Vienna," he said, "and discovered that the success of the opera depends on the way it is done. Strauss shoots music, and his latest opera must literally be cannonaded at the public; otherwise it makes no impression. Tha literally be cannonaded at the public; otherwise it makes no impression. The cities which did not like it were those in which it was not sung as the composer intended. I shall give the opera in French along with a new work I acquired in Budapest called 'The Violin Maker of Cremona, by Jan Hubay. I shall also produce Strauss's 'Feuersnoth in French.'

Mr. Hammerstein said that his educational season was to include operas.

ational season was to include operas in both French and Italian.

"Carasa is a great tenor," he said, "and will sing the leading rôles in all these performances. Then I have six conductors, and for this season, at which the kicket price for a seat is to be $2.1

ductors, and for this season, at which the highest price for a seat is to be $2. I am having entirely new secenery painted. It is practically beginning all over again, as everything is to be new."

The impresario said that he would invade Paris in either May or June next to give at the Chatelet both "Salome" and "Feuersnoth." His full announcement of the season's plans will be made to-day.

MARTY KEESE BURIED.

G. A. R. Men and Volunteer and Exempt Firemen the Pallbearers.

Old friends paid their last tribute to Martin J. Keese, nearly thirty years guardian of the City Hall, yesterday afternoon, when his funeral was held at flowers, and others adorned the wall back pray you, do you want this? Heartily,

The Rev. Dr. William Geer, vicar of St. Paul's Chapel—old St. Paul's, the oldest church building in Manhattan—read the Episcopal funeral service. When he had finished he turned and looked for a few moments at the face of Marty Keese, and then passed out. After other friends had taken their last look at the body the had taken their last look at the body the casket was borne to the hearse. Just as it was being placed inside Bugler Fitzgerald of Rawlins Post No. 80, G. A. R., an old comrade of Marty's, sounded taps. The twelve pallbearers were drawn four each from the G. A. R., the Exempt Firmen's and the Volunteer Firemen's associations, the badges of all of which organizations were noticeable in the funeral izations were noticeable in the funeral attendance, with the red shirts of the volunteers conspicuous. The bearers volunteers conspicuous. The bearers were President Daniel Bradley, ex-President Richard Cullen, ex-Chief Bates and Michael Buckley of the Volunteers; President John Monks, Foreman Peter J. Hickey, John J. Mulligan and John Malercy of the Exempts, and Commander Hickey, John J. Mulligan and John Maloney of the Exempts, and Commander Matthew Hennessey of Farnham Post and Andrew Bayed, John Nolen and Harry P. Niebheur of the G. A. R. Mr. Keese was buried in the uniform of the G. A. R. with medals of the G. A. R. and of the old firemen's organizations on and of the old firemen's organizations on the coat.

The procession of eight carriages and hearse went down to the City Hall and passed across the City Hall plaza Mayor McClellan had ordered the City Hall flags at half mast for the occasion, and the Police Department had sent down to the plaze a contingent of patrolmen who added dignity to the occasion. A small crowd watched the passage across the

The body of Mr. Keese was laid away in a vault at Greenwood Cemetery yester-day, where it will remain until a grave is secured near the plot of the Volunteer

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Susan Van Anden Swift, widow of Henry Swift, who was a well known Dutchess county lawyer, and sister of the late Isaac Van Anden, founder of the Brooklyn Eugle, died yesterday morning at her home, 21s Columbia Heights, Brooklyn, in her ninety-first year. Since the death of her husband more than thirty years ago she had made her home in Brooklyn. She was a member of the Church of the Pilgrims. She is survived by her sister, Miss Susan M. Van Anden.

Mrs. Sarah Woolsteneroft died on Sun.

Mrs. Sarah Woolstencroft died on Sun-ay at her home, 39 Fulton straid Mrs. Sarah Woolstencroft died on Sunday at her home, 39 Fulton street. Brooklyn, at the age of 76 years. She was the widow of Alfred Woolstencroft who was in the hat business and changed his name to James Turnbull in 1864 because that name was more easily remembered than his own. He was known as "Turnbull the Hatter." After his death in 1890 the widow earried on the business.

Vincent R. Cherny, St. a well known.

earried on the business.

Vincent R. Cherny, Sr., a well known hotel proprietor of River road, Edgewater, N. J., who was overcome by the heat on Sunday, died at his home yesterday morning. He was 52 years old and had been a resident of Edgewater for more than twenty-five years. His wife, two sons and a daughter survive him.

New Home for "A Gentleman From Mississippt."

"A Gentleman From Mississippi's" headquarters are now on the Aerial Gardens atop of the New Amsterdam Theatre.

BOOKS AND AUTHORS.

William Dean Howella's daughter, Miss Mildred Howells, is the latest writer WITH SO MANY PLANS THAT to be added to the list of the supposed authors of "The Inner Shrine." This list of literary suspects now numbers thirty-four. The Boston Transcript announces the unknown author to be Mr. Basil King, who was for ten years rector of Christ Church in Cambridge and has since 1900 been devoting himself to a Oscar Hammerstein arrived yesterday literary career. Mr. King's books in-on the Kronprinz Wilhelm minus the clude "Griselda." "Let No Man Put Asunder" and "The Giant's Strength."

> Mrs. Humphry Ward has completed ner Canadian story and it will be published under the title of "Canadian Born." The story will appear first as a serial in A new book by Charles Major, the author of "When Knighthood Was in Flower," is ready for publication. It is entitled "Gentle Knight of Old Brandenburg" to make public announcement of them and the principal characters are the charming and witty Wilhelmina, the Constantinople in search of artists, but I sister of Frederick the Great of Prussia, feel that the trouble was worth while, as and her admirers, the corpulent Mar-I collected an incomparable group. I grave of Schwedt and Fritz of Bayreuth, who was so big that he caught Frederick William's eye and was kidnapped into that monarch's army as a consequence.

readily believe that, as I had to go to fortune which awaits him in the hands Russia for one of my sopranos in the of a missing uncle. The scenes of the story move from the semi-Bohemian life The "educational season" at the Man- of New York to the decks of an old schooner and a camp in the wilderness.

physician."

A translation into Armenian is being avenue. The casket was covered with sire to this science," and concludes "I Still another edition of Jane Austin's novels has been brought out in "The St. Martin's Illustrated Library of Standard Authors." During the last ten years the vogue for the gentle lady who has been called "Howell's maiden grandmother" has grown into a cult and new editions of her works are brought out with astonishing rapidity. Her stories, which were once the recommended reading for the "young person" feminine, are now on the required list at Harvard for the young person masculine who wishes to take up the study of English literature.

nothing."

An interesting book now in process of publication is entitled "1872: Letters Written by a Gentleman in Boston to His Friend in Paris, Describing the Great Fire," with introductory chapters by Harold Murdock, author of "The Reconstruction of Europe." The introductory chapters give a picture of Boston and its old landmarks as it was in the year of the peace jubilee and describe the outbreak of the fire and the various causes which contributed to its spread. The letters give an account of the destruction of Winthrop Square and also give the current gossip of the street in business offices and at the Union Club, mentioning many well known citizens by name, so that the reader learns something of the spirit with which the men of that day faced the crisis. Mr. Murdock was an eyewitness of the fire and is now vice-president of

Interesting New Macmillan Novels

WITH a good novel

in your bag you can be sure of enjoying the coming holiday, rain or

Leave an order for these also.

shine.

Irving Bacheller's new novel, to be published early in the autumn, will be called "The Master." It recounts the story of a young man in quest of a

George Meredith's criticism of Henry James's book on America is being repeated with renewed interest now that Meredith, whom Mr. James regarded as one of his masters, the other being Balzac is dead. "You know my dear Jimes's book," wrote Meredith, "which he describes as an account of America revisited. The substance of it all is not a revisiting of America but a tour of James's own inside. He doesn't tell about America, but about how he felt when he saw this or that in America. Now and then he goes so far as to lead you to a little window in his anatomy and show you a glimpse of landscape that he says is America. But taken all in all it's very little one sees beyond the interior of my dear James."

Dr. Samuei McComb of Emmanuel Church, Boston, writing on causes of nervousness in the July Harper's Bazar says that it is better, especially for women not to suppress their emotions. These strangulated emotions, these griefs and moral wounds and deep rooted but frustrated desires of which you never speak even to your dearest, are the causes of your headache, your nervous dyspepsia the irritation of your blood and flesh. Women especially will carry moral wretchedness concealed in their hearts for years, says the writer, with the inevitable result of a nervous catstrophe. Dr McComb thinks such as these will do well to relieve themselves by confiding their troubles "either to a wise minister of religion or to a psychologically trained Salams.

Mr. Edmund Gosse's "Swinburne:, Personal Recollections," which appears in the Fortnightly, is a striking account of the physical and mental characteristics of the poet, with whom Mr. Gosse was on terms of intimate friendship for more than a third of a century Mr. Ernest Rhys contributes some notes on Meredith to the English Review and is glad to find that Meredith, like Swinburne, is not buried in Westminster Abbey, since the Abbey, he says, "honors no great man in these days," but is becoming "the resting place of mediocrities."

There is a rumor abroad, according to proposes to hand over to the Royal Literary Fund the thousands of pounds bequeathed to him by Mr. Swinburne. The editor of the Academy says that "a separate and independent Swinburne fund which would provide suitable pensions or grants for capable poets would be far more honorable to the name of Swin-Mr. Swinburne did not provide for something of this sort before his death, but probably he felt that the matter would be handled more satisfactorily by his lifelong friend. Of course the matter on July 10 will mark the 102d New York lies entirely with Mr. Watts-Dunton, and nobody would blame him if he did one of the leading banks of Boston. -

Public Library.

St. Louis, June 29.—Announcing the buzzard group. Several interesting specimens of young turkey buzzards were obtained in the Potomac River region, together with photographs and studies of bird life on the Potomac. Both of these babitat groups will be installed in the babitat groups will be installed in the babitat groups will be installed in the museum.

Public Library.

St. Louis, June 29.—Announcing the scenery and costumes has been provided by Brady and Grismer, but the cast headed by Wise and Fairbanks will remain the same. The Aerial Gardens have also been redecorated. The New have also been redecorated. The New have also been redecorated. The New habitat groups will be installed in the babitat groups will be installed in the babitat bird groups at the museum.

Commons—Fletcher.

An entirely new production as regards scenery and costumes has been provided by Brady and Grismer, but the cast headed by Wise and Fairbanks will cast headed by Wise and Fairbanks will remain the same. The Aerial Gardens have also been redecorated. The New have also been redecorated. The New habitat groups will be installed in the babitat groups will be installed in the babitat bird groups at the serior of the public Library, to be Crunden's succeptance of the resignation of Frederick K. Crunden as librarian in an extended by Wise and Fairbanks will cast headed by Wise and Fairbanks will remain the same. The Aerial Gardens have also been redecorated. The New Amsterdam Theatre orchestra has been the aim of Mr. W. Shaw Sparrow in "The English House," Shaw Sparrow in "The English House, Shaw Sparrow in "The English House

TAKE WITH YOU OVER THE FOURTH

Mr. James Lane Allen's The Bride of the Mistletoe

Mr. F. Marion Crawford's The White Sister Miss Ellen Glasgow's

The Romance of a Plain Man Mr. Eden Phillpotts's

The Three Brothers Mabel Osgood Wright's Poppea of the Post-Office

Mr. William Allen White's A Certain Rich Man

By the author of "A Kentucky Cardinal," etc.

The last of the famous "Saracinesca" novels.

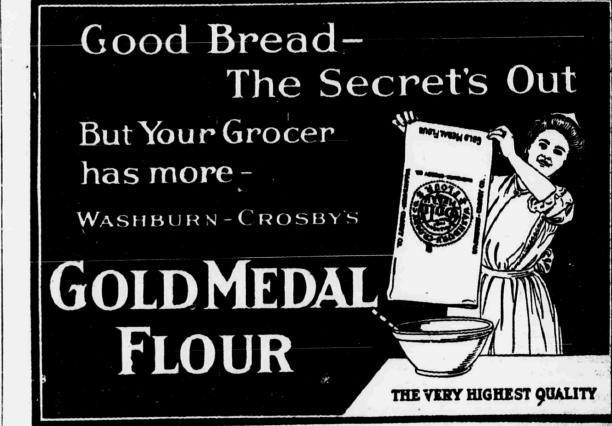

By the author of "The Deliverance," etc.

By the author of "Children of the Mist," etc.

By the author of "The Open Window." Ready July 7

To be ready in

Published by The MACMILLAN COMPANY, New York

of all matters which cannot be made KISPIOX INDIANS IN REVOLT. RARE—Herodotus, Piato, Petronius, Propertius, Juvenal, Longus, Ovid. Suctonius, Maria intelligible by words (a point to be remembered, though often forgotten), dwelling as little as possible on hard. technical details, but giving such definite traits of style as any one can learn by heart without difficulty."

Considerable scepticism has been expressed about Susan Glaspell being a actual person and the author of the book quarters were advised to-day "The Glory of the Conquered." It has Hazelton that two white settlers resisting been suggested that Susan Glaspell might be merely a nom de plume for an older and more experienced writer. But Susan Glaspell is a real person and the at Hazelton. book is her first book. She was born in Davenport, Ia., was educated at Des Moines and Chicago and has written short stories for the magazines. Both Mr. Swinburne and Mr. Meredith long before their deaths had reached the unless he is supported by a strong force. position of classic writers with regard to the value of their first editions and also their autographs. Mr. Swinburne had the advantage of Mr. Meredith so far as first editions were concerned, but some of Mr. Meredith's handwriting has been found to be more valuable by the test of the auction room, and a few weeks before he died a single letter was sold for $25. Both these writers had a pronounced aversion to the photographer. Three portraits of Mr. Meredith have been made. One of these is the famous portrait by Watts upon which the great writer sometimes spoke in his happiest vein of caustic criticism. This portrait has been sent to the National Portrait Gallery. There is a head by Sargent in the first volume of "The Library Edition" of Mr. Mere dith's writings published in 1896 and there is an etching by Mr. William Strang the Academy, that Mr. Watts-Dunton that has gone to the King's private collec-

> NEWS OF PLAYS AND PLAYERS. "The Climax" to Move-Ralph Stuart and Hamilton Revelle in New Parts.

Joe Weber will transfer "The Climax" burne. We are rather astonished that next door on July 12. The event is to be > performance of "The Climax." The little play of musical theme has the unique distinction of being the only piece of a serious nature capable of weathering the frightful ravages of the heated season.

>
> "The Climax" will continue at Weber's Theatre throughout the entire and probably late into the coming season.

and probably late into the coming season. Henry B. Harris has engaged Ralph Suart to create one of the principal roles in Channing Pollock's latest play, "Such a Little Queen," which opens the Hackett Theatre on Monday, August 20. When Edmund Breese retires from "The Third Degree" in October to be starred by Mr. Harris in James Bernard Fagan's play, "The Earth," Mr. Stuart will succeed him in "The Third Degree" in the role of Rich. he Earth," Mr. Stuart will succeed him "The Third Degree" in the rôle of Rick-George H. Brennan cabled his represent atives yesterday that he had engaged Hamilton Revelle in London for the prin-cipal male part of "The Coast of Chance." Mr. Revelle's last appearance in New York was in support of George Arias. He will return from England in September to begin rehearsals of the play, which will be staged under the direction of its author, Eugene W. Presbrey. Commons-Fletcher.

Victoria, B. C., Hears of Murders of White Settlers in the North Country. VICTORIA. B. C., June 29 .- The Kispion Indians in the North appear to have carried out their threat of going on the warpath in spite of a departmental official being sent from Ottawa to investigate expulsion by the Indians have been shot and the lacerated body of a white settler recovered near Clearwater, is now held

The body, as yet unidentified, is presumably that of one of the two settlers It was floating in the river, nude and mutilated, pierced by two bullets. The Indians are openly deflant and will not receive the Government's commissioner

JUSTICE ERLANGER HELPS. Takes Prisoner to Headquarters in His Auto and There Takes Ball.

At the urgent request of Sheriff Burke of Bell county, Texas, Central Office Detectives Haggerty and Barber arrested Henry Herckheimer at the Hotel Cadillac last night. Herokheimer, who is also called Herickheimmer and Meckheimer, according to the Texas Sheriff, told the police that he was a salesman and that he lived at the hotel where he was arrested.

was Herckheimer's success as a salesman of fake diamonds that causes him to be so badly wanted in Texas. Sheriff Burke wrote that the diamonds had been sold throughout the State and that five felony indictments were awaiting Mr. Herck-heimer in Bell county. Herckheimer was with a party of friends

According to Sheriff Burke again it his friends and the detectives down to from Daly's Theatre to his own playhouse next door on July 12. The event is to be known as "homecoming," as it was at Weber's Theatre that "The Climax" had its first metropolitan performance.

The final performance at Daly's Theatre The line is to be the performance at Daly's Theatre The delegation of $5 Central Park West and Felix Isman of the Hotel Knickerbocker.

At Police Headquarters after Herckheimer had been booked the Justice held informal court and admitted him to $2,500 bail. This was furnished by Solomon Bloom of $5 Central Park West and Felix Isman of the Hotel Knickerbocker.
The detectives say that Mr. Bloom is the prisoner's brother-in-law.

Weiz te Be Tried on Perjury Charge.

Justice Aspinwall in the Supreme Court in Flushing yesterday dismissed the firm of Welz & Zerweck to two indictments charging him with perjury in connection with the sale of eighty-five acres of swamp land known as Kissena Park, near Flushing. The trial will probably not begin until October. Welz was brought into the matter as a friend of Joseph Bermel, then President of Queens, and his alleged perjury consisted in testifying to the dates on a transfer of a mortgage.

Struction of a sewage disposal plant or not. The State says if the town doesn't adopt the proposition it will at once tring
adopt the proposition it will at once tring suit against the town for polluting the Shabbecong Creek. Individuals who are spill the proposition it will at once tring
adopt the proposition it will at once tring
suit against the town for polluting the Shabbecong Creek. Individuals who are spill the proposition it will at once tring dadopt the proposition it will at once tring suit against the town for polluting the Shabbecong Creek. Individuals who are spill the proposition it will at once tring
adopt the proposition it will at once tring suit against the town for polluting the sh mortgage.

INSTRUCTION.

Wm. J. Betts, M. A., Yale, Stamford, Comm., is tutoring in college entrance requirements and in rounding up the world withose who wish to enter upper classes in large preparatory schools. Send for circular.

$1,500,000 TO HOSPITALS. Harry Samuel Henry's Estate to Be Di vided-Paintings to Be Sold. PHILADELPHIA, June 29 .- By the will of Harry Samuel Henry, retired business man, horseman and art collector, which was admitted to probate to-day, his entire estate, estimated to be worth $1,500,000, is to be divided eventually among ave

His widow, who is appointed coexecut trix with the Girard Trust Company, to get the contents of the home at 4034 Chestnut street, with the exception of the pain tings, which are to be sold, and all carriages, harness and automobiles.

The income from the estate is to go to the widow for life, with the exception of an annual bequest of $600 to each of two sisters, Selena Ashworth and Elizabeth Coates. the pain tings, which are to be sold, and Philadelphia hospitals.

Upon the death of the three women the estate is to be divided equally among the University. Episcopal, Children's, Prestyterian and the Pennsylvania hospitals.

The will, which was dated August 8. The will, which was dated August 6, 1908, directs the executors to dispose of the Henry selection of paintings in New York at the earliest convenient date and provides that all securities be converted into bonds of the city of Philadelphia.

IS NEW JERSEY A FREE STATE

Or Can Trenton Hold a Club Over the Town of Washington? That's the Question. WASHINGTON, N. J., June 20:-This when arrested. These friends got Justice Erlanger of the Supreme Court to go to Police Headquarters and admit Herckheimer to bail. The Justice even did better than that. He went to the hotel in his automobile and carried the prisoner, his friends and the descrives down to the hotel in his automobile and carried the prisoner, his friends and the descrives down to the hotel in his automobile and carried the prisoner, his friends and the descrives down to the hotel in his automobile and carried the prisoner, his friends and the descrives down to the hotel in his automobile and carried the prisoner, held on July 26, is to determine whether his friends and the descrives down to held on July 26, is to determine whether held on Jul held on July 26, is to determine whether the town shall spend $60,000 for the construction of a sewage disposal plant or not. The State says if the town doesn't bere, that ever was the approximate of an election.

The letter of the State board says that legal steps against the town and individuals are deferred because of the coming election, with the understanding that the majority of voters were in favor of the proposed improvement.

A new novel by Edgar Saltus

DAUGHTERS OF THE RICH

In this striking novel Mr. Saltus has given a revelation of the possibilities of modern life and the complexity of modern character.

Covers in colors

MITCHELL KENNERLEY, Publisher